

What Participants Say

"I would like to think that I am now better able to respond pastorally and also - know when to refer people to professionals"

"I thought all of it was extremely helpful and effectively presented."

"My overall feedback is hugely positive and everything offered was helpful, insightful and pastorally delivered."

"The presenters were all amazing - knew their subject, great PowerPoints, articulate, passionate, worked well as a team, encouraged group engagement, and were extremely inspiring."

Register Now

Cost of one-day workshop:

$15 payable on-site

Coffee and tea included

Lunch not included

Free on-site parking at the St Columba Centre

To register:

Fill in this form or

Email Jelvine at j.cortez@tekupenga.org.nz

Call (09) 361 1053 ext 706

Accompanying Survivors of Sexual Harm:

A Workshop for Church Leaders

Saturday, 20 August 2022

9:00am - 4:00pm

CTC Campus, St Columba Centre

40 Vermont Street Ponsonby

ctc.ac.nz

Objectives

- ♦ Understand the nature of sexual harm and its prevalence in New Zealand.
- ♦ Be alert to and respond in a pastorally sensitive manner to people within their community who have experienced/are experiencing sexual harm.
- ♦ Identify and articulate some of the scriptural and theological foundations that work to justify/legitimise/enable sexual harm while silencing the voices of victims/survivors.
- ♦ Explore how their community might work to create a safe space for victims/survivors of sexual harm.

Outline

9.00am	Welcome and Prayer
	Purpose of this workshop
9.20am	Making this a safe space
9.30am	Setting the scene
10.15 am	Pastoral Response
11.30 am	Coffee Break
12.00pm	Working with biblical texts
12.30pm	Lunch
1.15pm	Working with biblical texts
2.15pm	Theological Responses: Unhealthy theologies of sacrifice and forgiveness
3.30pm	Evaluation
4:00pm	End of Workshop

Speakers

Lisa Spriggins is Head of Counselling in the School of Social Practice at Laidlaw College

Dr Emily Colgan is a Senior Lecturer in Biblical Studies and Academic Director at Trinity Theological College

Dr Rocio Figueroa is a Peruvian Theologian and a Lecturer at Te Kupenga Catholic Theological College

