Message from the Chief Executive

Robert Blucher

Ki te kotahi te kākaho, ka whati; ki te kāpuia, e kore e whati

If a reed stands alone, it can be broken; if it is in a group, it cannot

The mihi whakatau that you gave to me and my whanau on Friday 2nd September was very heartwarming.

My sincere thanks to everybody involved in organising and participating in this special event.

Thank you also for welcoming the large number of Te Kura whanau who came to support me on this important occasion.

This is my third week at Te Kupenga and everyone has been very helpful during my induction period.

As Chief Executive of Te Kupenga I will be aiming is to foster a culture of collaboration and enterprise.

As implied in the whakatauki above, we will be much stronger if we stand and work together.

I am blessed to be working with you all on this kaupapa.

Let us acknowledge the passing of Queen Elizabeth II. Kia okioki koe e te kuini.

Kia tau ngā manaakitanga o te Ariki ki runga i a koutou.

Ngā mihi

Robert

Students at Play

Students of the Catholic Theological College having an afternoon of friendly game of soccer after a long hard week of classes and studies.

Welcome to New Zealand

We welcome our new Vietnamese students who have recently arrived in New Zealand. They are currently studying English in preparation for their eventual enrolment in CTC. Some of them can be seen in this group photo taken on the day of Fr. Trung's Thanksgiving Mass in Vietnam.

Other prospective students are seen here in a recent photo with Fr Brendan Daly when he arrived in Vietnam last week.

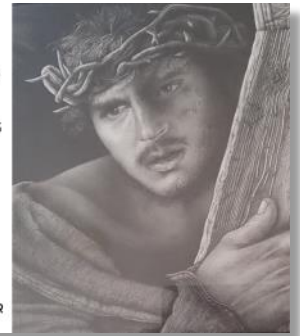

What's New at Colin Library

We welcome the end panels. The 7 rollaway shelving units have had end panels added to them which both makes them more stable, less likely to catch on someone or something as they are being moved, and more attractive. Mark was getting very frustrated trying to fit them all together but Nathaniel showed his dexterity and perseverance. Perhaps he just has the knack.
